WW II AMERICAN CAMPAIGN MEDAL

By Terry Weatherly

I had run across a 1906 farm house in Littleton that was for sale and while talking to Cindy Bockenstedt, she said she would do a drive by for me and check it out since I live a ways from there. While doing so she ran across another house, also 1906, sitting vacant and for sale by owner. She called and left a message. I called on the farm house and the owners were out of town. A few weeks had gone by and I started making phone calls to Duane, my contact, who it turns out had been down from a broken hip, he gives me Jesse's number and Jesse said the owner would contact me in the morning. I left a message for Cindy to give her the good news. While talking I told her the house had been scraped, so Cindy drove by the house only to see the house was still there, and so were the new owners. Cindy went up got permission from Brad who wanted to see a demonstration.

Soundoff March, 2013

We decided to meet the next morning, but Cindy was not having a good vibe as the ground was quite in the places where targets should have been found. Having time, we decided to go look at the house she had found. That owner had not called her back, so Cindy ask me to try. I made a phone call and David gave us permission to hunt. It's funny how things work out.

Well we get ready for business and start detecting only to start off with clad coins and nails, trash and then a wheatie and more wheaties which is starting to look good. As I get to the front walk to the house, I find a WW II American Campaign Medal with a date of 1941-1945 about 5" deep. Wow, what a cool find I thought, showing Cindy. We continued to find more wheats then Cindy finds a couple silver dimes and a thin 14k gold ring that had seen better days.

Next we were off to the farm house that looked so promising only to find clad pennies. Until next to the sidewalk by the street down about 7" I pulled another WW II American Campaign Medal out of the ground, just a little bigger than the first. What are the chances? Cindy's first thought was I was pulling a joke on her. Otherwise, it looked as if she was right. This site was not as good as it looked. Here is what I was able to find out about the Medals.

The Medal was given for service during World War II within the American Theater of Operations. The American Campaign Medal was established by Executive Order on November 6, 1942 and amended on March 15, 1946, which established a closing date. The

Secretary's Report

February 8, 2013

President Ron Erickson called the meeting of the Eureka Treasure Hunters Club to order at 7:30 PM. The annual February potluck was held prior to the meeting. Thank you to everyone who brought food tonight.

Approximately 56 members were present with the following guests: Mike Z., Brian Henry, Sam Knopp, Phillip Valdez, Diane Dengah, Ken Harmon, Janine Ballentine and Joseph Zubricky.

John Steele provided the Treasurer's report. John also noted the membership application is located on the website. It should be downloaded, printed, filled out and returned next month with your dues. Dues are $30 for an individual and $36 for a family.

New Officers and Board Members were recognized and given their name badges: Jay Reed, John Cornelisse, John Olson, Boots Lewis, Nancy Faires, and Linda Kibler. The outgoing Officers and Board Members were recognized and thanked: Louise Smyth, John Steele, Jeff Lubbert, Mary Sable, Bernie Watts and Roy Neys.

Cindy Bockenstedt reported on the Club's January outing to the Colorado History Museum.

LuLu's Bling Clue Hunt

Taylor Romeis reported on her care packages for servicemen. Charlotte Steele donated $50 and Taylor was able to send 7 additional boxes. She has sent a total of 60 care packages.

A discussion followed regarding the entry fee to charge for hunts, with and without food. For a basic Sunday hunt, $20 was suggested and $25 if food is provided.

A pig roast and rally are being planned for the June hunt to be held in Golden at Lazy Heart Ranch.

Boots Lewis and Jeff Lubbert are planning the first hunt of the year, March 10. It will be noted in the newsletter and there will be fliers at the March meeting.

Terri Harper won the silver slab drawing.

Jay Marquis won the ring box that was built and donated by John Cornelisse.

The Prez Sez

By Ron Erickson

March Prez Sez, 2-22-13

With 3 inches of snow on the ground, it's hard to believe spring is almost here. Are you ready?

Boots and Jeff are working hard to make the March hunt a big success and it should be a great time for all who attend.

Last month at our meeting I was asked a few questions about detecting, and it reminded me that there are a lot of new members out there looking for some tips and advice on where to hunt. Here are a few of them.

Schools Parks and Playgrounds are being refreshed with targets almost every day.

If you are looking for old items, you need to go where old items were used and people used to gather.

Sledding and tubing hills are a great place to find coins and jewelry. Look for places where gloves and coats were removed or places where sleds stopped or crashed.

Want to hunt old yards? Look for an opening. I know of one guy that hauled a lawn mower around and would offer to mow the yard if he could hunt it when he was done. Another guy offered an Indian head penny to the home owner before he hunted and by the time he got to the neighbor they were already looking for the Indian head penny and were ready to let him hunt.

If you don't dig the pull tabs you will not find the gold rings.

Do you have a tip to offer? Send it to Cindy and she will put it in the newsletter.

LuLubelle's Lost Bling

Treasure Puzzle

A cryptogram is an encoded message. The code used is called a simple substitution cypher. This means that the message is encoded by replacing each character in the message with a letter of the alphabet. Every time a particular character occurs in the message, it is replaced with the same code letter. Word spacing and punctuation are not changed.

Some people like to solve cryptograms much like some people like to do crossword puzzles. The cryptogram is solved by looking for frequently used characters and clues provided by letter patterns and word spacing. Solve the cryptogram shown below, find LuLu's bling and bring it to the next regular Eureka! meeting to collect a prize.

medal is awarded to any member of the Armed Forces who served in the American Theater of Operations during the period from December 7, 1941 to March 2, 1946 or was awarded a combat decoration while in combat against the enemy. The service must have been an aggregate of one year within the continental United States, or thirty consecutive days outside the continental United States, or sixty nonconsecutive days outside the continental United States, but within the American Theater of Operations. Maps of the three theaters of operations during World War II were drawn on November 6, 1942 to include the American Theater, European- African - Middle Eastern Theater and Asiatic-Pacific Theater.

The American Campaign Medal was designed by the Army's Institute of Heraldry. The medal is a circular bronze disc showing a Navy cruiser, a B-24 bomber and a sinking enemy submarine above three waves.

Shown in the background are some buildings representing the United States. Above is the raised inscription, "AMERICAN CAMPAIGN." The reverse of the medal shows an American eagle standing on a rock. On the left of the eagle are the raised inscribed dates, "1941-1945" and on the right, "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA." The ribbon (missing) is azure blue with three narrow stripes of red, white and blue (United States) in the center and four stripes of white, red (Japan), black and white (Germany) near the edges. Three-sixteenth inch bronze stars indicated participation in specialized antisubmarine, escort or special operations. The American Campaign Medal is worn after the Women's Army Corps Service Medal by Army & Air Force personnel and after the American Defense Service Medal by the Naval Services.

Baseball caps with the Eureka logo are available for $10.00.

History Colorado Center - January's Eureka Outing

By Cindy Bockenstedt

Well, with it being only 7 degrees out on Sunday, January 13, 2013, it wasn't great weather to be out with a metal detector. So luckily we had a club outing planned at the History Colorado Center. Fourteen Eureka members showed up to check out the exhibits. Several members were seen driving a Model T across the Colorado plains. I took a ski jump, but didn't try on the Barrel Man's barrel.

There was history on the Spanish, Mexican and Indians, as well as the miners, soldiers and homesteaders. The Sand Creek Massacre exhibit was quite interesting.

The experience starts out in the main foyer where the floor is a huge Colorado state map with round brass plates embedded in it. The plates can be activated with a moveable time machine to learn more about that area and what had happened there at certain time

In-Town Hunt Schedule

As a Eureka! member we want you to participate in and help put on In-Town club hunts. These hunts are meant to be fun, first and foremost. They provide a context outside of the meetings for fellowship with club members. To put on an in-town hunt you need to:

- Schedule with the Hunt Coordinator or President (see the contact list).
- Provide the Hunt Coordinator a plan.
- Send the hunt flyer to the newsletter editor in an appropriate format for insertion into the newsletter (see the contact list).
- Provide flyers at the monthly meeting.
- Ensure the hunt rules are discussed BEFORE the hunt.
- Police the hunt.
- The hunt master for any particular hunt can decide open hunt (non-members may hunt) or members only.
- Write a story for the newsletter and send it and accompanying photos to the newsletter editor prior to that month's deadline.

To ensure the continuation of this hobby and to provide the best impression of Eureka! and its membership, you, as hunt master, MUST enforce all rules, including:

1. Pouches to store finds and trash MUST be worn and used at all times during the hunt.
2. All hunters must wear headphones.
3. Absolutely no tolerance of holes left open. A first warning, followed by a time-out or expulsion from the hunt.
4. Hunters digging and leaving trash of any sort on the hunt field will receive the same treatment discussed above.

All hunts will need to be okayed by Hunt Coordinator (see the contact list) prior to officially being put in the newsletter and put on.

Failure to follow the guidelines may result in hunts being cancelled.

See the 2013 calendar for planned hunts and openings.

Membership Renewal

April is coming soon. Yearly dues are $30 per individual or $36 for a family membership. Please go to Eurekatic.com and download and complete the application form. Membership dues can be paid to the treasurer at the March or April meetings. Don't miss out on a fun year!

intervals. Key stories per time and place were shown on six screens as people encircled the machine.

A 1920's north eastern Colorado town, Keota, was featured with personal stories from people who lived there. A general store, home, school and barn all had interactive exhibits to help us journey back in time and learn about the agricultural side of our state's history.

Our mining past was also featured with a Silverton hard rock mine. Terry Weatherly and I shot off some dynamite and blew up the mine, oops.

We watched a short clip, "A Concert Day at Red Rocks", which showed what happens when a band comes to play. The inside view of the setup, back stage, and finally the concert was shown. I learned that in 1964, John Cornelisse snuck into the Beatles concert there. I bet that was crazy amazing.

Unfortunately, the Stephen H. Hart Library and Research Center was not open. It is open Wednesday through Saturday from 10-5. You do not have to buy a museum entry to go. Stop at the concierge's desk next to the ticket counter and they will give you a pass.

Hopefully, each of us learned something new or got an idea of another place to hunt. And as always, it was fun to hang out with friends.
